iv. Dashboard:

6. Labelling task status and changing task status:

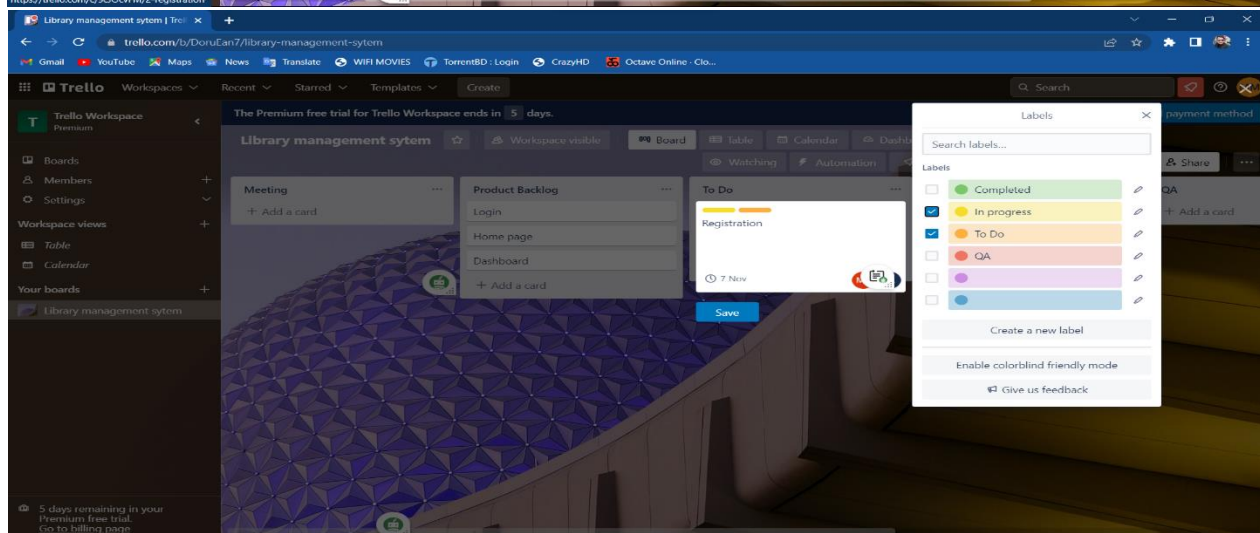

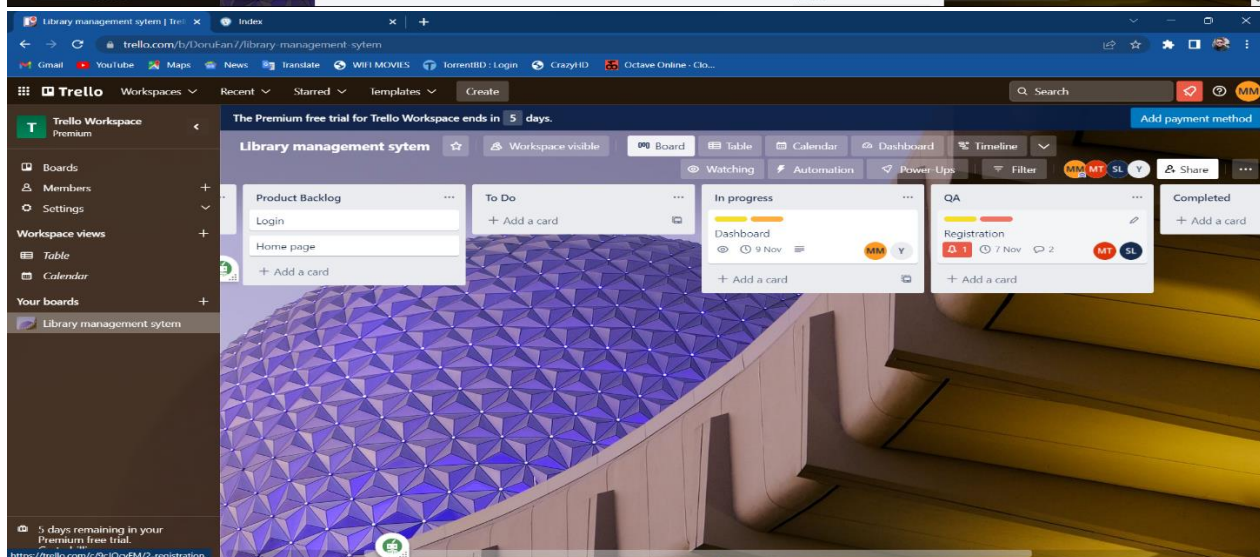

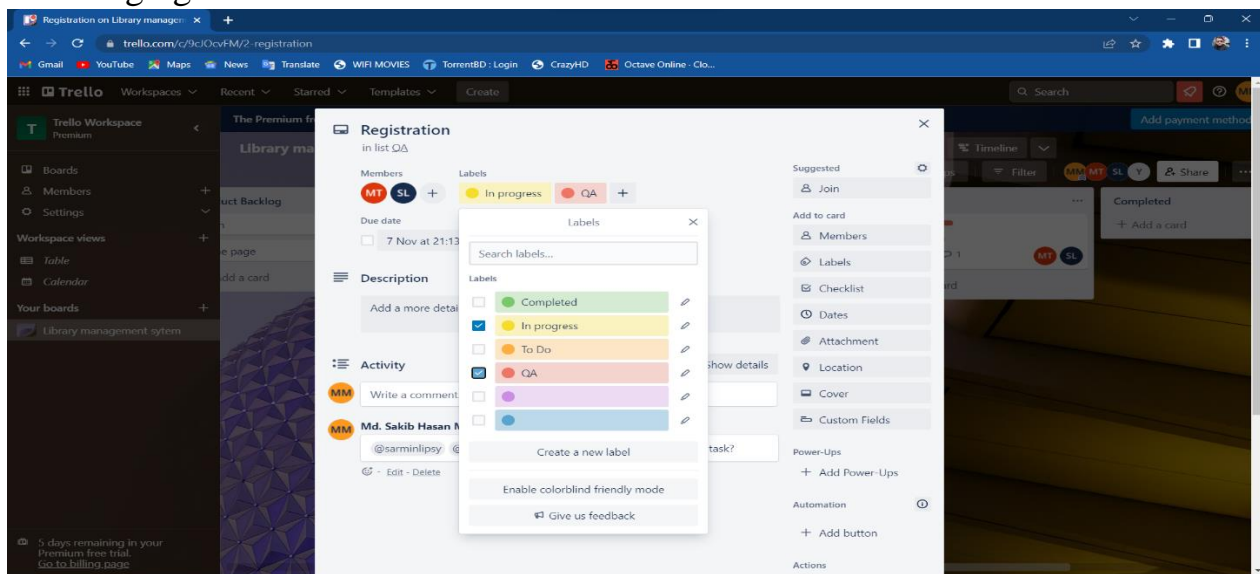

i. Labelling task:

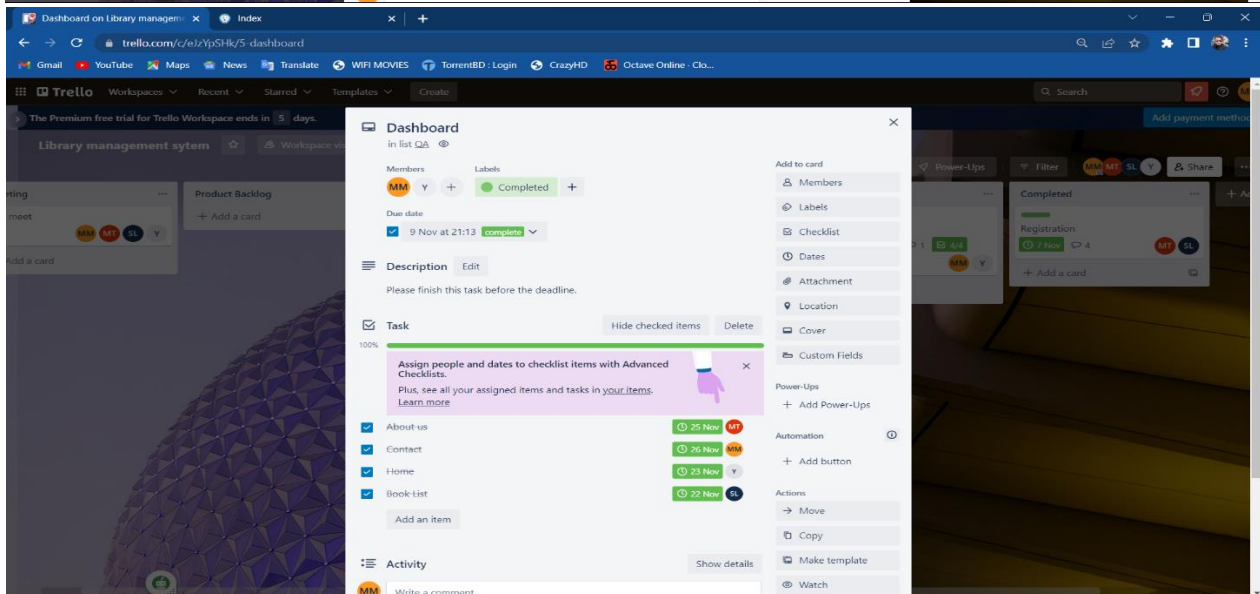

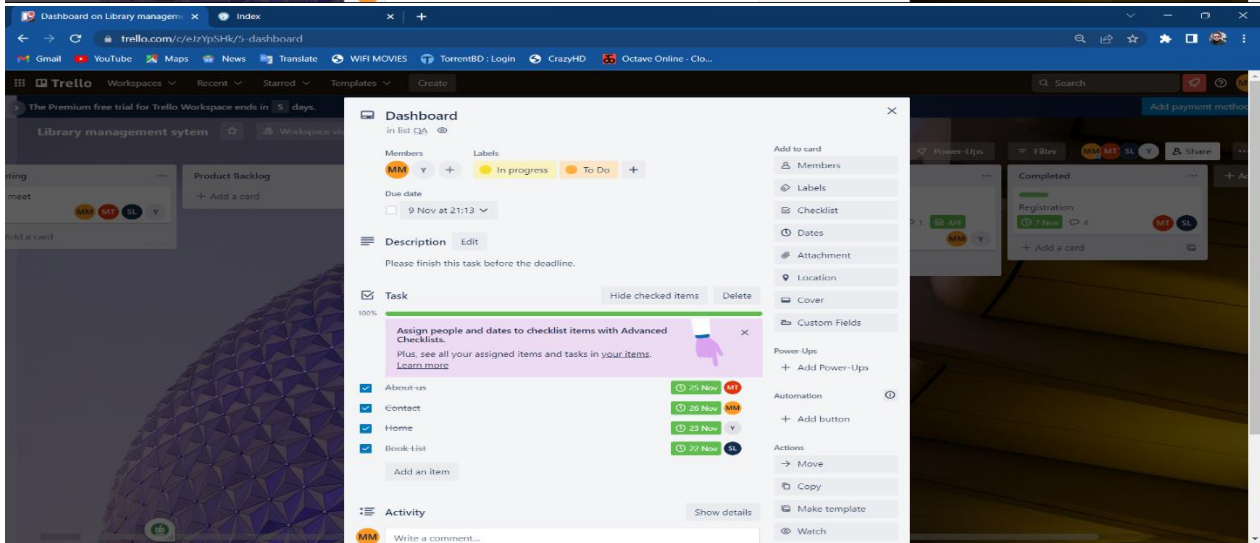

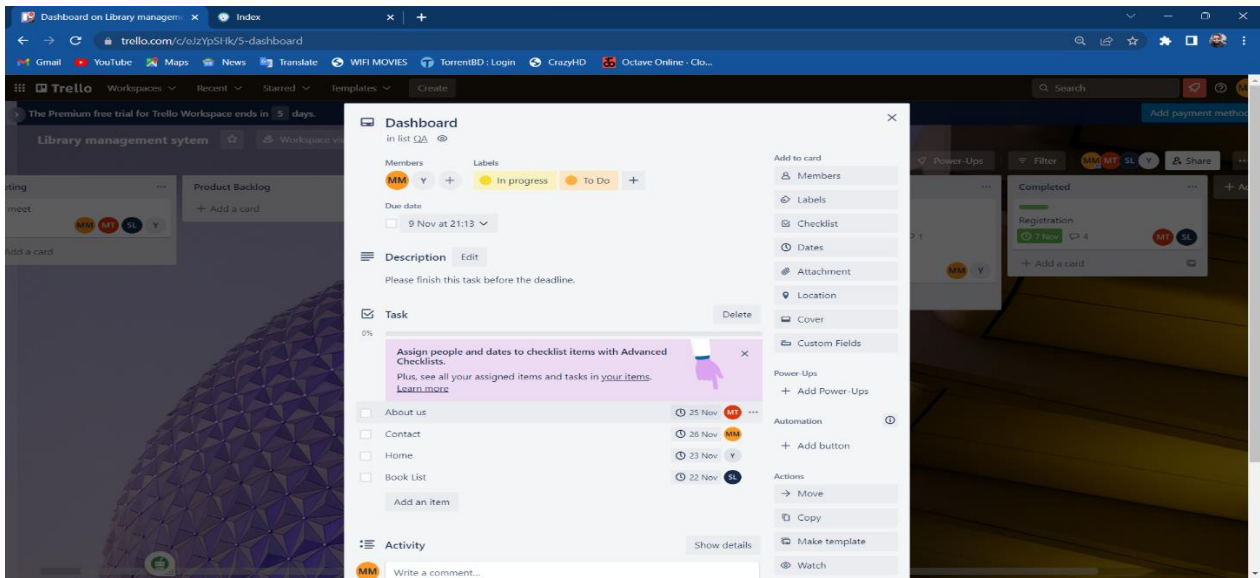

The image consists of two screenshots of the Trello web interface, demonstrating how to label a task.

Top Screenshot: The interface shows a workspace named "Library management system". The main board has columns: "Meeting", "Product Backlog", "To Do", and "In progress". The "Product Backlog" column contains cards for "Registration", "Login", "Home page", and "Dashboard". A "Labels" panel is open on the right, showing a list of labels: "Completed" (green), "In progress" (yellow), "To Do" (orange), "QA" (red), and a blue label. The "In progress" label is selected.

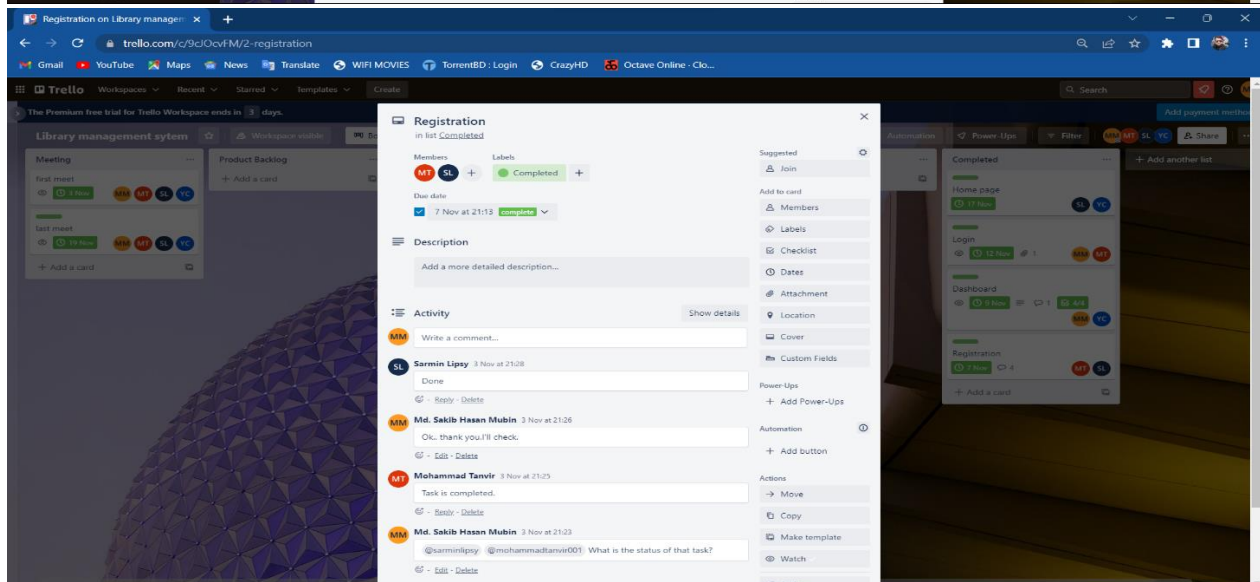

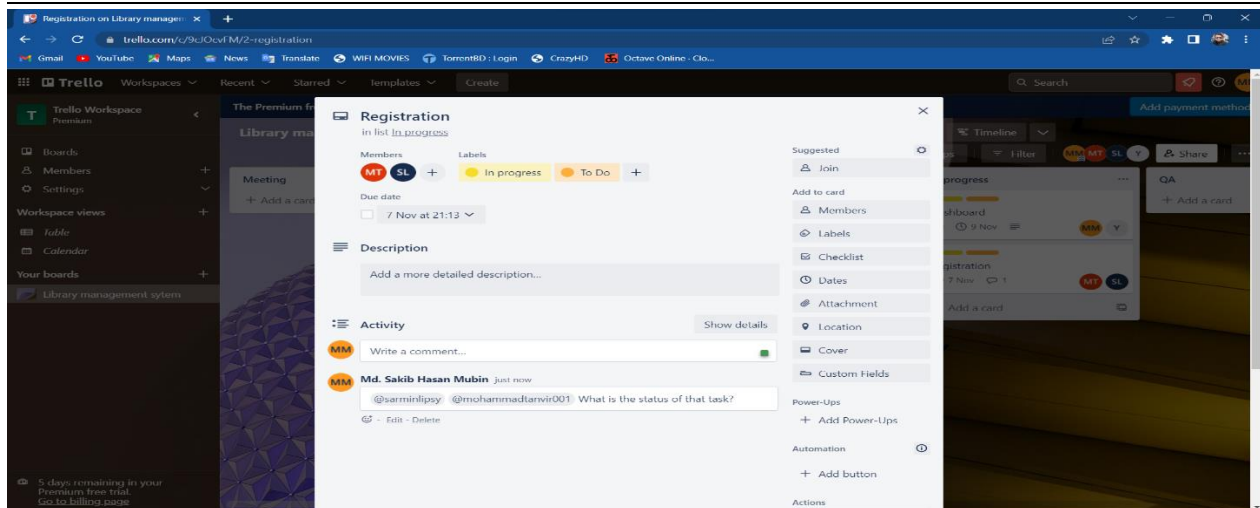

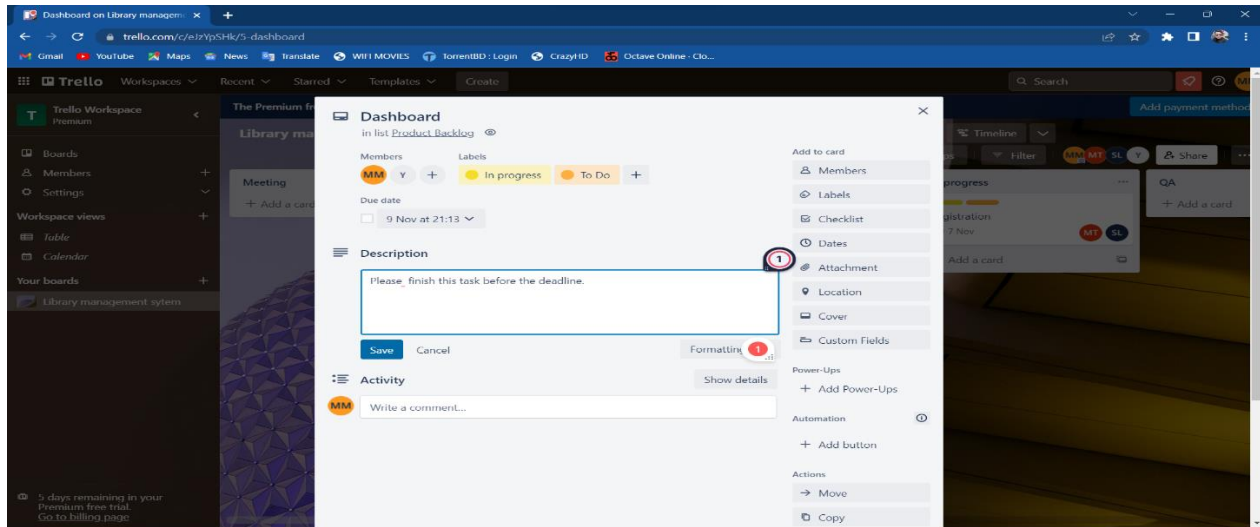

Bottom Screenshot: The same workspace is shown, but the "Labels" panel is now open over the "Registration" card in the "To Do" column. The "In progress" label is selected, and the "Save" button is visible at the bottom of the panel.

ii. Changing task status:

7. Chat/ Comment among group members about the working status:

How to finish this project?
